‘Earned Compensation’ for active members, means compensation exclusive of maintenance, allowance, and expenses paid for services by a member out of funds controlled by an employer, before any pre-tax deductions allowed under the IRC are deducted from the member’s compensation. Elective deferrals made under a bona fide cafeteria plan under IRC section 125 are considered earned compensation but only to the extent the amounts would be includible in gross income but for IRC section 125(a).

‘Fiscal Year’ means July 1 through June 30.

‘Full-time service’ means service which is at least 180 days in a fiscal year, at least 140 hours a month during nine months in a fiscal year, or full-time under an alternative school calendar adopted by a school board that is less than 180 days but meets minimum accreditation requirements of 1,080 hours.

‘Membership Service’ means the periods of employment that would entitle a person to active membership in the retirement system on which contributions have been reported and remain on deposit.

‘Normal Form’ or ‘Normal Form Benefit’ means a monthly retirement benefit payable during the lifetime of a retired member.

A TRS MEMBER’S RESPONSIBILITIES

The TRS encourages members to take ownership of their retirement account. To assist in the retirement education process, a ‘Member's Retirement Plan Handbook’ is provided to each member. The information contained in the handbook provides the tools a member will need to be well informed at the time of termination and retirement, and ready to make the choices that will lead to a rewarding life as a retired educator. The TRS goal is to provide fast, easy access to complete and accurate information to all TRS members. To assist with the retirement education process, we suggest the following:

• Dedicate time to become informed before making important decisions. The TRS strongly encourages each member to utilize the resources offered by the TRS for retirement education.

• Inform the TRS of any significant event such as marriage, divorce, death of a beneficiary, or the birth of a child, a change in name and/or mailing address.

• Take advantage of other tools and resources available on the TRS website; account information, the on-line benefit estimator, and the retirement education tutorials.

• Include family in their retirement planning and decision-making.

• Carefully review the annual ‘Statement of Account’ provided by the TRS relative to creditable service, beneficiary designation, and the estimate of benefits, if provided.

MEMBER’S CONTRIBUTION ACCOUNT

A TRS member’s account balance represents contributions withheld from their gross wages and reported to the TRS, plus accumulated interest. The employer contribution is not reflected in a member’s account balance. It is placed in the pension trust fund and, together with investment earnings, provides funding for a member’s retirement benefit.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT

In the fall of each year, the TRS provides an ‘Annual Statement of Account’ to each member. The statement presents the member’s contributions and accumulated interest, representing their account balance, as well as creditable service for the fiscal year ending June 30. In addition, if a member is eligible for normal or early retirement, the statement will provide the estimated monthly annuity payment the member could receive at retirement. The TRS will mail the ‘Annual Statement of Account’ directly to a member’s address on file with the TRS. To ensure a member's receipt of their statement, please notify the TRS of an address change. If a current mailing address is not available, the TRS will mail the Statement of Account to your office, as the employer.
USE OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

The TRS requires that a member provide their Social Security Number to ensure that any amounts disbursed under their account are properly reported to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and as a reference number for tracking all data with regard to the member’s retirement account.

- IRC Sections 6041 (A), and 6109 authorize the TRS to solicit a member’s Social Security Number.
- The TRS will not disclose the member’s Social Security Number to any party, unless required by law.

FUTURE UPDATES TO THE EMPLOYERS’ MANUAL

The Employers’ Manual is provided by the TRS in a manner that may be kept in a hard binder to facilitate future growth and is available on the TRS website. Replacement pages and sample forms will be available on the TRS website as the TRS progresses through changes in policies, procedures, legislation, and automation. The TRS will notify employers when updates to the Employers’ Manual are available on the TRS website for downloading and printing.
